

Charles E. Cowell Jr. to Be Ordained in Sunday Service

A young man will be ordained into the ministry at 5 p.m. June 22 in the First Christian Church of Torrance. Charles E. Cowell Jr., formerly of Torrance will become a minister in the Christian Church of Glendora. At present he is a student in the Southern California School of Theology and assistant minister of the First Christian Church of Glendora. Three churches are sponsoring Cowell and will participate in the ordination service. They are: First Christian Church of Torrance, South Bay Christian Church of Redondo Beach, and First Christian Church of Glendora.

Speaker for the occasion will be Dr. Willis Fisher, professor of Old Testament Literature at Southern California School of Theology. Also taking part will be Roy McCutcheon, chairman of the Board of Elders of the local church and Rev. H. Milton Sippell; Dr. James Farrott, executive secretary of the Christian Churches of Southern California; Rev. Wales Smith, minister of First Christian Church of Santa Monica and chairman of the Commission for the Effective Ministry; Rev. D. E. Cerbin, minister of South Bay Christian Church; and Rev. Harry Nissen, minister of First Christian Church of Glendora. The chancel choir of the Torrance Church will sing. Following the service the Young Adult Fellowship will be hosts for a reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Cowell.

Cowell has been the recipient of a Danforth Foundation scholarship and will be minister to students at the University of Minnesota this coming year.

USC String Trio Plays at Stephen White

University of Southern California students entertained Stephen M. White Junior High mothers and pupils in the school auditorium June 9. Artists performing were Harris Goldman, violin; Laurence Lesser, cello; Carolyn Brown, piano. They played pieces by Pepper, Bartok, Beethoven and Haydn.

The recital was followed by an orchestra demonstration conducted by Julius Cochran. Girls of the school homemaking department, under the direction of Miss Joan Reedstrom, served tea.
